< Before > < After >

Is there a new house visible now at the bottom-left of the cul-de-sac?

✓ Yes

What is the most significant change related to building between the two images?

A. Several new residential buildings have been constructed around the cul-de-sac.
B. A large commercial building has been demolished.
C. A new stadium has been built.
D. Existing houses have been removed to create open space.

✓ Correct Answer: A

< Before > < After >

Has a house been completed on the land located on the right side of the main road, immediately north of the T-Intersection?

✓ Yes

What significant change related to building activity is observed in the area between the two images?

A. An existing commercial building has been renovated and expanded.
B. A new public park with recreational facilities has been established.
C. New residential buildings have been constructed on previously undeveloped land.
D. There is no change.

✓ Correct Answer: C

< Before > < After >

Did any previously unseen, clearly defined clusters of trees or shrubs become visible in the landscape?

✓ No

Observe the two satellite images provided. What change is visible between the images?

A. A new, prominent body of water has appeared in the upper-left section of the landscape.
B. The central strip of vegetation has been significantly reduced.
C. A new road has been constructed running vertically through the right side of the image.
D. There are no visible changes between the two images.

✓ Correct Answer: D